

Dr. Dianne Coflin Prophecy – PM Service 06.09.24

While we were worshipping, I just heard the Lord say something about your team. I would like you to turn to Isaiah 30.

I just want to share with you the next level that the Worship Team is gonna go to. I saw it in the Spirit; and I really believe that the skill and unity that the Lord has within this team has positioned you into a place and another level here. Now it's not that you're not at a great level now, that's not what I'm implying here, but it's gonna take you to another one.

And now this is in Isaiah 30:30 where He says, “The Lord shall cause His glorious voice to be heard and the descending blow of His arm to be seen coming down with indignant anger and with the flame of a devouring fire amid crashing blasts and cloud bursts, tempest, and hailstones.” That's a pretty powerful moment when the Holy Spirit comes, and we see here the depiction of that – of the Lord causing His voice to be heard.

Now listen how the voice gets heard: verse 31, “at the voice of the Lord, the Assyrians, the enemy, will be stricken with dismay and terror.” How many of you know that in this land today there are many Assyrians? and they need to hear the voice of the Lord.

As Pastor was speaking here, just a few minutes ago, that devouring sword is part of what we declare into the Spirit, and we tear down those things that try to come against us. But in this case, this is enlightened in verse 32, the enemy of the Lord, this is another phase, another way in which the Lord will speak and do in this hour; and He'll do it with worshippers.

And so He says, “and the voice of the Lord will strike the Assyrians with dismay and terror when He smites them with His rod,” verse 32, “with every passing stroke of the staff of punishment and doom.” That's some pretty good judgment against what tries to come against us, Amen, and this nation. “Which the Lord lays upon them shall be to the sound,” now we're seeing how He does it.

He's gonna do it to the sound of Israel's timbrels, lyres, we could just substitute the “Worship Team” on the keys and the drums, “in battle as He attacked Assyria with swinging and menacing arms.”

I heard the Lord saying, so you the Worship Team – stand those of you that are remaining. And [to the congregation] I would also like for you all to keep in mind that you all are worshippers as well, and so your voice can be heard during worship.

But the team – that the Lord wants now – you're going to another level in your worship. Now, whether He does it now or He does it six months from now, I don't know the timing, but I'll declare it because I felt I was to be obedient. It's the “Sword of the Spirit” and so I'm declaring unto you, in the name of Jesus, that devouring fire, that sound that will come from the Lord, where He will come against the enemies that are trying to come, not only against the church, but in this nation.

“You shall have moments in the Spirit,” says the Lord, “I will flow through you to your instruments; and I will take upon you, or press upon you, to begin to flow in that river and as you do, you will strike terror amongst the enemies in this land, and you will prophesy on your instruments. You will prophesy on your instruments and there'll be moments where you'll say, ‘I couldn't duplicate that and play it again’” but it'll be a moment in the Holy Ghost.

And so, as you do and as you learn to yield to that, learn to yield to that, you'll find the voice of the Lord coming through the instruments. A sound that cannot come any other way than how the Spirit of the Lord will come upon and take the prophetic into the music; and He will strike enemies down in this nation, as He does this across the land, in worship across the land. Your mouth (if you will yield in worship) your mouth will become that devouring Sword as well.

Hallelujah! And can you imagine the unity that can take place if you all, as worshippers in the congregation, will hook up with that? You will unite in that, you'll begin to flow in it, begin to sing in the Holy Ghost. Listen to your leaders!

It will come to pass. I'm telling you, it'll come to pass. When? I don't know, but I do know that this team is getting prepared to go to that next level and enemies in Plant City are going to bow. They will fall at your side because of the anointing and worship.

Hallelujah!

“So, no more, no more, no more! The same old, the same old”, the Lord says!
From now on, I'm beginning a NEW WORK... I'm beginning a NEW WORK...

Do we have the drummers? We got the drummer here. We've got the instruments, thank you, Father! Ohh, we just release, hallelujah, the anointing. Jesus name, yes, we thank you Lord. We thank you for that. I love it, thank you Jesus

Ohh, you guys, it'll be so easy. You don't have to work this up. You don't have to work it up. Just flow with Him. I'm telling you, He's gonna take you into that river. He'll take you into that next level river and you worshippers. Honey, you stirred me up!!!!

Behold, how good and pleasant it is for the brethren to dwell together as a unit. And this church is just positioning and posturing itself – as a unit – for that blessing to be commanded for and LIFE. Hallelujah! LIFE, forevermore.

Because the Spirit of God sniffs out! I'm telling you, it's a fragrance that comes up to Him when unity is maintained. You must maintain that attitude of unity through the power of prayer, hallelujah! And you'll see Him made manifest!
